

Pro-Net Picks

April 27-May 4

NET NOTES:

Welcome!

Arts Walk and The Procession... 2 reasons why Olympia is such a wonderful community. To those who participated: Thank you for your wonderful gifts!

Paul Loeb, Seattle author of Soul of a Citizen and The Impossible Will Take a Little While, is a possible speaker for the July 11 Progressive Town Hall Picnic. He has a new book: Antidote to Despair: Paul Loeb's New Soul of a Citizen. If we can find a few sponsors to help us with his honorarium, we can bring Paul Loeb to Olympia! Is anyone interested in sponsoring at the $25-$100 level? Donors can be individuals, businesses or organizations. If you wish to become a sponsor or need more information, please contact us right away at info@tcpronet.org

If you have read Loeb's books, you'll want to talk with him and hear him speak! This really is a great opportunity to meet Paul. Please help us make it happen! Click here to read more.

The Creative Community Festival being held at The Evergreen State College on Saturday, May 22nd is looking for tablers. Local progressive organizations are encouraged to participate. The goal of this festival is to invite the South Puget Sound Community to discover its capacity to foster change.

Space is limited! Click here to find out more.

CITY COUNCIL APPOINTMENT: The City of Olympia will be selecting someone to replace Joe Hyer on the City Council. Application materials are available here and must be submitted by May 10.
